BOXWOOD LIST

900 Specimen plants of Buxus suffruticosa from 2 ft. to 15 ft. spread. These are located at our Nursery at Elliston, Va., 19 miles west of Roanoke on Lee Highway, are mostly A grade plants and have all been recently transplanted. All our stock has the heavy dense foliage and rich green color typical of Boxwood grown in the Virginia Blue Ridge.

In addition to the above we own the following situated in gardens of old Colonial homes in Virginia which we can sell at attractive prices, properly dug and packed F.O.B. or where it stands.

63 Plants, dwarf, 2½ to 4 ft. about half A grade, balance touching, but good foliage. 17 plants, tree box, 8 to 11 ft. high, all A grade. Will price this as a whole or will separate it. Franklin
